

Feeling positive and having a healthy self-esteem is important. In Room 17 we have Compliment bags and we put kind words into our Compliment Bags to encourage and support each other. We work together to make sure everyone feels like they belong and they are special. Reading some kind words can make your day. Remember always Choose Kind that is our Motto.

