

Mr Blackwood Character Profile

Principal Anzac Terrace

Mr Blackwood is presently the Principal of Anzac Terrace Primary School. He is fifty-one years old and was born in 1969. He lived in Melbourne and then moved to Perth. In Perth he met his wife Jodie and decided to settle in here. He has two and a half children, one is an angel child because he lost his oldest child Josh, the day he was born. He has a dog called Murphy and a budgie called Aussie.

If Mr Blackwood hadn't been a Principal, he would have been a sport Journalism

The highlight in Mr Blackwood's life is being a Principal.

His role model is his father in law. Who taught him how to be a really good Father to his children His football team Western Bulldogs is really important to him. He attended the Grand Final when they won.

He has been to other schools before he came to Anzac Terrace Primary School but this is his favourite.

He loves being around kids at school. He enjoys spending time playing Lawn Bowls and entertaining his two kids, Elijah and Ashleigh. He values being a really good Dad to his kids.

His favourite teacher is definitely Mrs Crawford. Although he loves all the teachers at Anzac Terrace.

Mr Blackwood is famous and unique at our school because he is so funny and tells lots of jokes. He makes our school fun and he is definitely a good Principal.

By Marcus Lemke