Watchwood Forest

Luka

Bzzz! "Vgh, there's fireflies everywhere!" Wait, is that a glowing deer? No impossible!
"Is not is it?" I venture closer to it as it slowly creeps into the endless piece of greenery. I follow and no light is projecting on it. It leads me to these big evergreen trees where there are spectacular parrots and colourful pieces of the forest. There are huge branches that I can barely step on.
"Wait the tree has a face!" said confused, I then saw all the plants turn into animals and stare at me obnoxiously.
