

Nancy Wake

by Ed and
Charlie

She was a spy!

She received 11
medals
altogether.

She received the George Medal, 1939-45 Star, France and Germany Star, Defence Medal, British War Medal 1939-45, French Officer of the Legion of Honour, French Croix de Guerre with Star and two Palms, US Medal for Freedom with Palm and French Medaille de la Resistance for her courageous endeavours. Wake's medals are on display in the Second World War gallery at the Australian War Memorial.

She once cycled 500km
to restore radio contact!

She died in 2011 and
she lived to 98.

Her nickname was
the White Mouse.

She survived and she had a 5 million dollar
bounty on her head!

