

Oodgeroo Noonuccal

Oodgeroo Noonuccal was born on 3rd of November 1920 and died on the 16th of September 1993, from cancer but the type is not specified. She was born in Bulimba Brisbane Queensland.

Her name when she was born was Kathleen Jean Walker she later changed her name to Oodgeroo Noonuccal meaning paperbark tree.

She left school at 13 to become a domestic servant.

Oodgeroo served in the military for 2 years but sadly did not get any medals.

Before she was in the army she published a book called We Are Going.

